Dhirajlal Gandhi College of Technology, Salem

Aditi – Women Development Club of DGCT organized the session on “சாதிப்போம் வா பெண்ணே” (Come on Girl! Let us Win together) through online mode on 08.05.2021 between 5.30 pm and 6.30 pm.

The main objective of this event is to motivate the budding women engineers to take up startup activities on their own. The session started with welcome address by Ms.M. Parameswari, AP/CSE, DGCT. Dr. N. Thillaikarasi, Coordinator, AICTE-SPICES Programme and Aditi-Women Development Club, DGCT, detailed about the aims and objectives of AICTE- SPICES programme (Scheme for Promoting Interests creativity and Ethics among Students) to the aditi members and participants. Smt. Archana Manojkumar, Secretary, DGCT, appreciated the student participants and encouraged them to do many startup activities.

DGCT students Ms. Swetha. S - III Year ECE, Ms. Nagasoundarya. V - III Year ECE, Ms. Nandhana Maheswari. R- III Year ECE, Ms. Soundarya. P- III Year ECE and Ms. Priyanka. N - III Year ECE talked about their you tube channel “Tea Time Tutors” and shared their start-up experience. They inspired other students of DGCT and motivated them for their self-development. 55 DGCT students got benefited through this online session which was very informative and stimulated the interest among the students. Students actively interacted among themselves and came out with many different ideas.

At the end of the session Ms. P. Mahalakshmi, III Year CSE, DGCT, gave a vote of thanks. The online event was conducted under the guidance of Dr. N. Thillaikarasi, Coordinator, AICTE-SPICES Programme and Aditi-Women Development Club, DGCT and Dr. D. Rajeswari, Co-coordinator, AICTE-SPICES Programme and Aditi-Women Development Club, DGCT.
