ROLE OF AN ENGINEER

Congratulations! You have chosen to study engineering because you perceive it to be a good career, and because you have skills that you believe will be well suited to a career in engineering.

Nevertheless, it may still be the case that you don't have a clear idea of what a career in engineering will actually involve.

Engineering involves imagination and innovation. As an engineer we have the power to make a change from small to big, from bad to good, from scratch to mega machines and from a zero to hero. You as a engineer bring ideas to life. You are creative both as initiators and implementers of new ideas. You invent new technologies. You are creative problem solvers. Engineering is one of the key influences that shape our world – physically, digitally, socially and economically. As an engineer, you can be proud of the tremendous role that engineering played in enabling the Industrial revolution, information age and the society. Engineers will develop the new processes and products and will create and manage the life easy in the society. The essence of engineering, on the other hand, is integrating all knowledge for some purpose. Engineering is a fantastic and very rewarding profession and you can use your skills to pursue many other directions in your career. Engineers are without Borders. Engineers can have varied roles throughout their careers from highly technical roles to ones of management and leadership. As an engineer, society always expects you to KISS (keep it simple and stupid).

*“We Engineers are the catalyst,
To initiate the reaction of passion for the country,
And let's inspire the future citizens of India”.*
–My role as an engineer is to change things for the better.”

What Engineers Do?

- Design products
- Design Plants in which those products are made
- Design the systems that ensure the quality and efficiency of the manufacturing process
- Design, plan and supervise the construction of buildings, highways, transit systems
- Develop and implement ways to extract process and use raw materials such as petroleum and natural gas. Harness the power of the sun, and wind to satisfy the nation's power needs

As a Professional Engineer you have a duty to ensure that you use wisely and faithfully The Knowledge that you have acquired in the area with relevant to the engineering skills needed in your work in the service of others.

7.1.10 Dhirajlal Gandhi College of Technology

Essentially, it is important to understand that engineers don't just work with machines, designs or circuit boards, and engineering doesn't only require a good understanding of science and mathematics. Engineering needs to be understood in the context of its role in society, and your role as an engineer has to be understood in the context of your work within a company, and ultimately within society. As an engineer, you may be involved in negotiations, you may become a manager, supervising the work of a team of engineers, you may have special responsibilities to ensure that work is safe, or to ensure it is not damaging the environment.

The inventions and innovations of engineering have always created new ways of living and working, and as they have shaped our lives they have become crucial to supporting and maintaining our quality of life. From the supply of essential services such as power and water to life support machines in hospitals, the products of engineering are threaded through people lives both individually and collectively. This means that engineers doesn't alone have a responsibility, but also a great opportunity, to ensure that they have a positive influence on society. Engineers can contribute to the development of affordable and appropriate infrastructure for our country, to help deliver clean water, sanitation, power and communications to poor communities.

Finally, you should believe that you can transform the engineering profession and create massive small change to catalyze sustainable development through engineering. You are invited to DGCT to join us on the learning journey to address global challenges with your engineering skills.
